Backyard Burning Ban lifted within Williams Lake Boundaries

With the reduction in fire hazard and the BC Wildfire Service rescinding of campfire bans throughout the Cariboo Fire Centre as of noon today, the Williams Lake Fire Department has lifted the backyard burning ban that has been in place for most of the summer.

Please note that outdoor pits must follow the requirements in the Fire Protection & Control Bylaw.

For more information about the Fire Protection & Control Bylaw regulations, please visit the City of Williams Lake's website at www.williamslake.ca, or click on <https://williamslake.civicweb.net/filepro/documents/2472?preview=58244>

For more information, contact the Williams Lake Fire Department at (250) 392-4321.
